Armathwaite Hall Country House Hotel and Spa Nominated for “Excellent Family Hotel” Award

Armathwaite Hall Country House and Spa has been nominated as one of the top spas in the UK as the “Most Excellent Family Hotel” in a Condé Nast Johansens Award for Excellence.

The luxurious spa hotel near Keswick in the Lake District, welcomes children and teens, with spacious rooms with extra beds for children, interconnecting rooms, and deluxe family rooms with integral bunk bedded rooms. There is even a Children’s Country Club, offering a range of fun and exciting activities during weekends and school holidays throughout the year.

Armathwaite Hall Country House Hotel & Spa can also arrange free or discounted admission to many local attractions. Such as Trotters World of Animals (free entrance) – an award winning wildlife park home to hundreds of rare and endangered animals, birds of prey and reptiles.

Children staying at the hotel can enjoy a ‘Teen Spa’ experience, which caters for 14-18 year olds, or a ‘Mini-Teen Spa’ experience for 12-14 year olds. Treatments are specifically designed for under 18’s, using the most natural, gentle products suitable for teenage skin, and include make up application lessons, facial skin care assessments, shape and paint for feet or hands, and gentle back massages.

Also available from Armathwaite are seasonal discovery packs, treasure hunts, board games and an adventure playground on site to enjoy. Various other exciting attractions in the area to entertain and thrill can be arranged from the hotel direct, from aquariums to zip slides.

ABOUT THE AWARDS

The 2010 Awards for Excellence cover 31 categories, including Most Excellent Resort, Most Excellent Hotel and Most Excellent Romantic Hideaway. Awards for Excellence winners represent the very best of the best.
